ABOUT US

STETLER & DUFFY, LTD., is a firm of trial lawyers specializing in complex civil litigation and the representation of individuals and entities involved in white collar criminal proceedings. Our attorneys have extensive experience in handling all aspects of state and federal litigation. In the area of white collar criminal defense, our lawyers have successfully represented clients subject to prosecution from the investigative through the trial and appellate stages. The firm also specializes in the prosecution and defense of complex civil litigation. Our attorneys have extensive experience in matters involving health care fraud, antitrust, securities fraud, civil and criminal RICO violations, qui tam actions, and a wide variety of commercial, business, and financial disputes. Finally, our lawyers have extensive experience in conducting internal investigations on behalf of publicly traded and privately owned corporations where financial or other misconduct has been suspected.

Each of the firm's two founding principals are veteran defense attorneys who formerly served as supervisory level Assistant United States Attorneys in the Northern District of Illinois. Each is also Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers.
